

Need a vacation from your Diamond team? Maybe Sapphire? Or just the crippling pace of your current team? Maybe you are an avid YouTuber or blogger and would like to experience "farm life" so you can add to your game documentaries.

Welcome to "Celebrity Vacations." This is a weekly recurring event starting Tuesdays and ending Mondays (after event prizes are delivered). One celebrity guest volunteer can reserve and take a vacation to the Farm (XPFarmsLooseX1 team) as member #50 on our team to experience life on the farm and help the team for a week. You don't have to be famous, just someone who feels they have a lot to offer (teaching, helping out) and has never been a farm base.

We have started this program in beta mode for the last 2 weeks and with great results. Guest one was BeledinesSoul (from The Shadow Wars Saga, Dragon Lord of October, 2016, Diamond league, and Creators Faction member) the week of February 20, 2018. The second week's guest has been Adored (Creators Faction member, base auditor, Dragon Lord of January, 2017, Diamond league, and avid Instagramer for War Dragons game) the week of February 27. Who will be next week's celebrity?

Following the "vacation," the celebrity guest star will be asked to complete a brief interview crafted by farms and farm fans.

If you're interested in being a celebrity guest, please indicate the week you would like to join so Alleviates can be in contact and add you to the Calendar! Just message me on Facebook or my Twitter (@starcitydreamer) or shoot me an email at Alleviates@WarDragons.info
